State Officer for a Day Middle Level Program

2017 NATIONAL THEME

Candidate Application Process

About the Program: The purpose of the 2017 State Officer for a Day program is to expose Middle Level BPA members to Secondary BPA and to teach them the leadership skills required to be a leader in BPA. Students will spend a day with the Delaware State BPA Leadership Team at the Middle Level State Leadership Conference on February 21, 2017. The goal of the program is to encourage Middle Level students to pursue Secondary Level BPA and run for leadership positions in BPA in the future.

Eligibility: The State Officer for a Day program is open to all Middle Level BPA students in the state of Delaware. Applicants are required to be registered for the Middle Level SLC on February 21, 2017. Applicants may still compete in competitive events throughout the day.
